FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 7037 - SB 7012

August 20, 2023

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires, by October 1, 2024, the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) to enter each final disposition of criminal proceedings received by the bureau into the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and any other databases maintained by the bureau for the purpose of criminal history record checks within 30 days of the bureau's receipt of the disposition from a clerk of court.

FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- The TBI can enter dispositions into any database maintained by the bureau for the purpose of criminal history record checks, including the Tennessee criminal history repository, within 30 days of receiving such dispositions from a clerk of court without incurring a significant increase in expenditures.
- The NCIC database is maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The TBI is unable to directly enter dispositions into that database.
- Any fiscal impact to state government is estimated to be not significant.
